

“The French Connection”

... with the NJ Festival Orchestra

Saturday, November 3, 2018

The NJ Festival Orchestra (formerly the Westfield Symphony) will be playing exciting selections from American composers who were influenced by the French as well as famous French composers. Selections will include Clair de Lune by Debussy, sections of the opera Carmen, by Bizet; you will hear Aaron Copland's Hoedown as well as the fabulous American in Paris by George Gershwin and Offenbach's CanCan. French composer Dukas' exciting Sorcerer's Apprentice from the movie Fantasia is also one of the selections on the program. You surely won't want to miss the NJ Festival Orchestra's version of a "Pops" concert right here in our ballroom. Be sure to reserve early as we are often sold out.
